

Dear Gastrells Community,

It's hard to believe we have found ourselves at the half way point for this academic year!

Yet another fortnight has passed and the activities and opportunities throughout the school keep on flowing.

We are especially proud of the children who are exhibiting their artwork in such a professional setting — what an incredible opportunity, and a wonderful celebration of their creativity and confidence. If you haven't yet visited the exhibition, we highly recommend to. We have also been hugely impressed with our gymnasts in their recent competition. They showed determination, resilience and excellent sportsmanship, and represented Gastrells so well; a real credit to themselves and the school.

As we reach the end of term, we would like to wish all Gastrells families a lovely half term break. We are also looking forward to welcoming Mrs Seward into school more next term as she begins her handover as Headteacher.

...and finally, good luck to everyone taking part in the FOG Quiz on Friday night, we hope you have a brilliant evening!

Wishing you all a lovely and restful half term.

MESSAGE FROM THE OFFICE

Breakfast Club and After School Club

Just a gentle reminder to please check your account and settle any outstanding fees for your wrap around care.

If you are paying via childcare vouchers, please note that these can sometimes take a little time to reach us. We are only able to update and clear balances once the payment has arrived into our account.

To help us keep bookings organised and ensure sessions run smoothly, we kindly ask that any outstanding balances are cleared before making any bookings for Term 4.

School Dinner Money

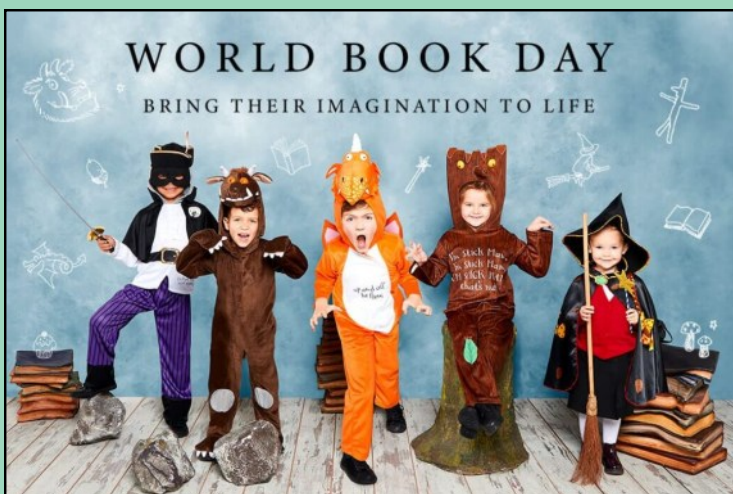

Please could we also ask that you log into ParentPay and settle any outstanding school dinner balances before we break up for half term. A small number of accounts are beginning to build up, and we would really appreciate these being cleared in preparation for the new term.

Residential Trips

If you have any outstanding monies for upcoming residential trips, we would be grateful if payment instalments via the school app could be brought up to date before we return after half term.

WORLD BOOK DAY

Thursday 5th March

Come prepared for World Book Day on Thursday 5th March where children are invited to come into school dressed as one of their favourite book characters!

NEXT LEVEL EXHIBITION

THREE STORIES GALLERY

We are delighted to share that the Next Level Exhibition is now open for the public to view in Nailsworth, and we couldn't be more thrilled to see so many of our children's artwork on display. The exhibition, which was open to young people aged 4–19, showcases an incredible range of talent from across the local area, and it is a real celebration of creativity and self-expression. We are incredibly proud that Gastrells artists are exhibited alongside so many other talented young people, and it has been wonderful to see the children's work presented in such a professional setting.

We are also excited to announce that three of our Gastrells children had their artwork selected for very special reasons. Danny and Millicent had their artwork selected to be produced into cards that will be sold throughout the event, raising money for 'NailsworthCAN' and Ben O'Brien created an incredible snake collage, which was not only chosen to feature on the main advertising leaflet, but has also won him the accolade of most impressive artwork in his age category! A fantastic achievement and a real honour.

There was a real buzz at the exhibition, and it was lovely to see so many members of the public viewing the artwork, taking their time and admiring the children's creations.

Miss Mahaffy said, "It was very hard to select the artwork to submit this year, there are so many talented children throughout the school. We feel truly blessed to have such a brilliant opportunity on our doorstep to celebrate young people and their creativity"

The exhibition is open to view until 22nd February so if you're able to visit, please do go along and support our young artists, it's a wonderful display and something the children can be extremely proud of.

REPLIES FROM KENYA

Sparrowhawks Class have been delighted to receive some photographs from our penpal friends at RAAP School in Kenya. Seeing the images has really brought the project to life. Now that we've exchanged photographs of our settings, it has opened the children's eyes to just how different our schools and surroundings can be — from classrooms and outdoor spaces to the wider community around them. At the same time, the children have also noticed many similarities too: the pride everyone takes in their learning, the importance of friendship, and the excitement of sharing news and asking questions.

The letters have sparked lots of thoughtful conversations in class, with the children eager to learn more about daily life at RAAP School and to share their own experiences here at school. It has been wonderful to see such curiosity, empathy and enthusiasm growing with each exchange. Our gifts for the children at RAAP School haven't arrived yet, but we're looking forward to them being received soon. In the meantime, it's been lovely to continue building this relationship and strengthening the connection between our two schools.

We can't wait to share our next letters and keep this special partnership going.

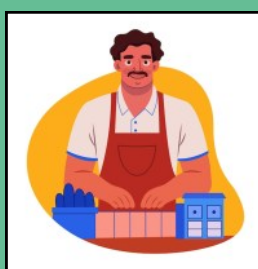

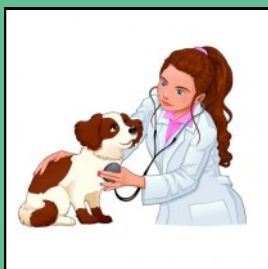

OWLS REQUEST FOR VISITORS...

After half term, Owls Class will be exploring our new topic, "People Who Help Us," and we'd love your support.

We're looking for people in a wide range of roles who help others as part of their job to visit the class for a short, informal chat. This helps the children understand the many different ways people contribute to our community.

In previous years, we've been lucky to welcome visitors such as police officers, firefighters and midwives — and we'd love to broaden this even further this year. Do you know a friendly postal worker, refuse collector, crossing patrol, paramedic, care worker, builder, shop worker, or anyone else who helps people in their day-to-day work? If you can help, or can recommend someone who might be happy to visit, please contact Miss Woolls at cwoolls@gastrells.gloucs.sch.uk.

HOKUSAI MEETS ALMA THOMAS

Sparrowhawks have just completed these beautiful acrylic paintings depicting Hokusai's Great Wave through the painterly lens of artist Alma Thomas.

Two very different artists; Hokusai a Japanese wood block painter from 200 years ago, and Alma Thomas an African-American abstract artist from 50 years ago. The children compared both styles of artwork and then adapted their painting techniques to reflect the block pattern of warm and cool analogous colours within the sun and the wave. As we are sure you will agree, these are stunning and very atmospheric. Well done all!

BIKEABILITY

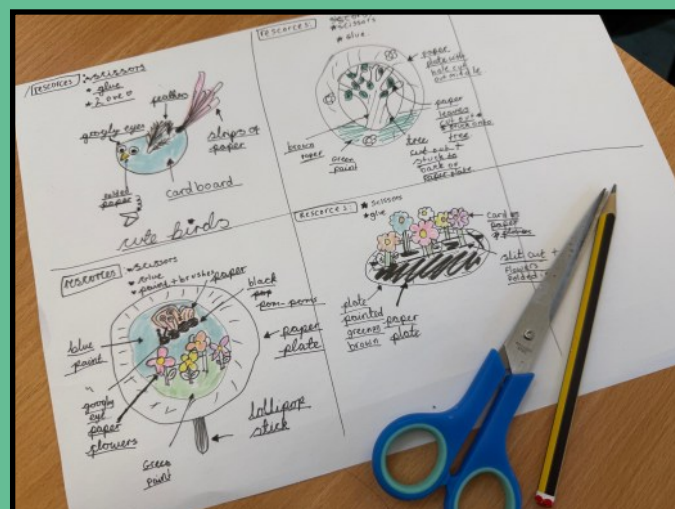

Last week, it was the year 5's chance to take part in this year's Bikeability, which equips children with the skills, confidence, and safety knowledge to ride bikes on roads through three progressive levels, covering off-road control to navigating complex, busy traffic.

As always, the children embraced this opportunity enthusiastically and have come away feeling more empowered on

ART IN THE COMMUNITY

Art Ambassadors are stretching their wings and will be visiting the local Rodborough Playgroup to lead some creative stations in their afternoon provisions. The team are busy researching the developmental stages of younger children and putting together some spring inspired activities to offer.

IN OTHER NEWS...

GLOUCESTERSHIRE YOUNG PHOTOGRAPHER OF THE YEAR

It's that time of year again folks, when our thoughts turn to capturing special moments through a lens. We're delighted to be taking part once more in this wonderful county-wide photography competition, and we'd love as many children as possible to enter.

Each year, more than 65 schools from across the county take part, and it's always inspiring to see the imagination, creativity and careful compositions that children produce. Photographs can be colour or black and white, and the subject matter is completely open—anything from a pet, a family member, a favourite view on a walk, a beautiful snapshot of nature or the business of a market town.

To help spark ideas, here are a few different ways children could experiment with their photography:

Try different perspectives: photograph from up high, down low, or even from the side to make everyday objects look new and interesting.

Get close with macro-style shots: zoom in or move in close to capture details like leaf veins, bark texture, raindrops, feathers, or petals.

Go wide angle: step back and capture the bigger scene—landscapes, skies, or groups of objects.

Play with light and shadow: silhouettes, reflections in puddles, or sunlight through trees can be striking.

Choose colour or black and white: colour can make a photo feel bright and lively, while black and white can highlight shape, contrast and mood.

Look for patterns: repeating shapes (fences, bricks, footprints, waves) can make a simple photo eye-catching.

All submissions must be emailed directly to Miss Mahaffy at rmahaffy@gastrells.gloucs.sch.uk by Wednesday 18th March. She will then submit entries on behalf of the school.

Please do encourage your children to get involved, have a go, and enjoy being creative—we can't wait to see what they capture!

Mental health is about our feelings, thoughts, and how we get along with friends. It helps us stay calm, be happy, and make good choices.

Good mental health means being able to deal with everyday problems.

What is Mental Health?

Mental health can be affected by many things, like how we are born, what happens to us, and our family.

Just like you need to eat healthy food and exercise to stay strong, you need to do things that make you happy and calm to keep your mind healthy.
